IN THE FICTIONAL DEMO REVIEW COURT
Alex Example v. Demo Agency
Training matter DEMO-001
Draft memorandum for pre-filing review

1. PUBLIC EDUCATION - BENIGN CONTROL
Brown v. Board of Education, 347 U.S. 483 (1954), held that racial segregation in public education deprives the plaintiffs of equal protection. The Court stated: "Separate educational facilities are inherently unequal."

2. CUSTODIAL QUESTIONING - BENIGN CONTROL
Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966), requires safeguards for the privilege against self-incrimination during custodial interrogation, including warning the person before questioning of the right to remain silent and the right to the presence of an attorney.

3. MARRIAGE - BENIGN CONTROL
Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U.S. 644 (2015), held that same-sex couples may exercise the fundamental right to marry. This statement is a teaching summary, not advice about a current dispute.

4. DELIBERATE AUTHORITY MISUSE
Brown v. Board of Education, 347 U.S. 483 (1954), permits racial segregation in public schools whenever funding is equal. The Court stated: "Separate educational facilities are inherently equal."

5. UNRESOLVED AUTHORITY - INVENTED TEST INPUT
Example v. Imaginary Agency, 999 U.S. 999 (2099), supposedly requires automatic approval of every AI-written filing. This citation is intentionally invented for this fixture, not a finding from a live database search.

6. SYNTHETIC IDENTIFIERS - DELIBERATE PRIVACY TEST
The fictional person's SSN-shaped identifier is 900-12-3456 (invalid issuance range; test-only).
The fictional person's date of birth is 04/17/2000.
The fictional bank account number is 000123456789.
These values are invented and do not identify a real client.

7. BENIGN NUMBER CONTROLS
The training matter reference is DEMO-001. The administrative event date is 09/27/2026, not a birth date.
Reporter volumes, pages and case years above are not financial account numbers.

8. REQUEST FOR HUMAN REVIEW
Check cited sources and the selected demo court profile before relying on this draft. Correct unsupported propositions, review quotation differences, and remove unnecessary private identifiers.
